

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL SHOOT'S THREE

CHILD USES PISTOL WHEN FATHER CAUGHT WITH "OTHER WOMAN"

Mother Shot Accidentally
Trying to Save Husband
—Girl Held

Chicago, May 20.—Two women were wounded, one perhaps fatally and a man was less seriously hurt here today as a result of a 15 year old high school girl's dealing out of "justice" from the barrel of a .38 calibre revolver.

Her victims were:
Miss Agnes Simneck, 28, alleged "other woman," who the girl charges had infatuated her father;

William Wunsch, her father, and
Birdie, his wife, who threw herself in front of her infuriated daughter and received the bullet intended for her husband.

The girl, Lucille Wunsch, is being held by police.

The shooting took place in the rear of the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Trapp, Riverdale with whom Miss Simneck made her home.

It was there that the daughter and mother had gone to spy on the father and husband, whose alleged indiscretions with Miss Simneck, said to have extended over a period of two years, had been discovered by Lucille and reported to her mother.

All through a long night they waited in the darkness until about midnight they heard the crunching footsteps on the gravel walk which told of someone approaching. Lucille's hand stole under the cape she was wearing and as her father and Miss Simneck rounded the corner, her father's arm around his alleged affinity, the gun which she had carried with her, spoke once, a staccato bark on the stillness of the quiet Chicago suburb.

"You've broken up our home," a childish voice cried out stridently on the night air.

Then the pistol's message of death rang out again and a woman lay crumpled up at the feet of the girl, who stood over her, her childish figure, silhouetted against the bright moonlight sky, the smoking gun clutched in her hand.

Wunsch yelled and ran toward his daughter. The gun was lowered menacingly but just as the childish finger squeezed the trigger, Mrs. Wunsch threw herself forward, stopping the bullet intended for the man, who had played false to his vows.

But Lucille was in a frenzy; she paid no heed to the mother's voice, which cried out pleadingly:

"Lucille, Lucille, why did you do it? Why didn't you tell me you had the gun?"

Another shot and the gun was emptied and the father had been added to the list of victims.

Wunsch and his wife were taken to a hospital, where it was said both probably would recover. Miss Simneck however, was found to have suffered bullet wounds in both lungs and physicians say they believe she will die.

Lucille, oldest of five children, was being held on an open charge today, while the police decide what disposition to make of her case.

Since taken into custody, she has showed remorse only for wounding her mother.

Of her father and Miss Simneck, she said:

"They cheated me and lied. They deserve what they got."

NO ARRESTS NEAR IN PROBE OF MURDER OF BROMLEY, KY., WOMAN

Postmortem Shows Criminal
Attack And That Death Was
Due To Beating

Cincinnati, May 20.—Coroner Handley said today that Aileen Williams, 38, of Bromley, Ky., who was found murdered in a wood just outside the city limits of Cincinnati, had been criminally attacked by her slayer, or slayers.

This was determined by a postmortem examination.

Detectives announced that Joseph Cavanaugh, Dayton, Ky., admitted he was to have met Mrs. Williams in Cincinnati, Saturday night. The woman did not keep the tryst and it is believed that instead, she met the person or persons who lured her to her death.

The last time her husband, John Williams, a Bromley, Ky., real estate agent and builder, saw her, was Saturday noon when he drove her to the car line and declares she boarded a car bound for Cincinnati.

Death came to Mrs. Williams, Coroner Handley says, as the result of a terrific beating which fractured her skull. Her son's necktie, which she wore when she left Saturday, was knotted around her neck twice, leading to the first impression that strangulation had been the cause of death.

Mrs. Williams owned several buildings in Cincinnati. Two diamond rings, valued at $600 and $60 in money which she had when last seen are missing. She had been married three times.

Cruelty Charged

Mrs. Cullen Landis planned to ask separate maintenance in Los Angeles courts as her answer to the divorce suit of her film actor husband, who charged that she nagged him unmercifully. She avers the actor was cruel to her, and that although he earned $1,000 weekly, he failed to contribute to her support.

MOTHER PRAYS FOR PISTOL-USER

Girl Rather Victim Dies
Than Make Mother
Unhappy

Chicago, May 20.—"Mother's, praying for me because mother believes in God."

"She went through all the hard years with my father, pinching and scraping to clothe us five children and then he cheated with her for a pretty face."

"The tell me this Anna may die. I'm sorry, of course, but I'd rather she'd die than live and make my mother unhappy again."

This is the philosophy which poured from the lips of 15 year old Lucille Wunsch today as she sat in a police cell awaiting the disposition of her case by the police who charged her with shooting Miss Anna Simneck, her father's alleged affinity, her mother, Mrs. Birdie Wunsch and her father, William.

"It was two years ago," the child continues, her eyes looking unafraid at her questioners, "that father met this Anna. She lives at George Trapp's. He's her stepfather. She's pretty, prettier and younger than my mother."

"My father and this Anna began to go out together. My mother went to George Trapp and told him what was going on. But Trapp didn't do anything."

"And a year ago, my mother caught Anna Simneck and my father together and she ran Anna all the way home with a hatpin. But my father and Anna kept sneaking out to meet each other."

"My mother's eyes have always been red lately from crying. And when she would talk to my father plead with him to leave Anna alone, she did it when she didn't think I could hear—he'd curse her."

"One day I told mother that I knew and that I would help her."

"So last night, we waited for them to come back to Trapp's."

Here the tale breaks. The girl does not discuss the shooting, bridging that event with a brief silence and plunging into its consequences.

"My father will get well," she says, "and"—there is certain hardness, a hardness beyond the years, about her lips—"when he does, he'd better be good to my mother!"

Winthrop, Maine, May 20.—After shooting Mrs. Emma Towns, 65 year old widow and applying the torch to her cottage, a man who demanded the widow's jewels, bound and gagged her niece, Mrs. Aida Hayward, 35, and carried her off in an automobile today.

PROPOSE NEW TEETH FOR DRY LAW

"You Can't Improve The Methods Of Jesus", Bishop Tells Methodist Meeting

Church Official Criticizes American Legion for Un-Christian-Like Attitude to Japs—Ministers and Laymen Attend Sessions

"You can't believe in Jesus unless you believe in what He came to do. You can't improve on the methods of Jesus," were two of the declarations of Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, resident bishop of the Cincinnati Area, at the Dayton District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Trinity Church, this city, Tuesday afternoon.

"It is the laymen that have to decide as to whether the church is going to get to Pentecost, or whether they will block the path!"

"Do you believe you ought to help in getting the gospel of Jesus to the people you like or to everyone? We have to love a lot of people we don't like. I believe that there were a number of people that Jesus did not like, but whom He won through love."

"We don't always say but we think a lot of un-Christian-like things about the people of foreign tongues and creeds. Language, race and tradition has nothing to do with getting to Pentecost. Anything that stirs social, religious, or racial prejudice blocks the purpose of the Holy Spirit."

"There is a certain organization, and I will name it by name the American Legion of Ohio that has filed a protest against the settlement of Japanese in Northeastern Ohio. That is not Christian-like."

"You will never be happy until you are happy in Christ's way. You can't take part of the Gospel, Christ's commissions and abandon them; throwing part in the waste basket."

"The World Service Program of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is the only opportunity for that church to answer the call of spreading the Gospel. And there are only three ways in this complex modern life, to fill Christ's commissions: First, by investing in prayer; second, investing your possessions and third, by investing your personality and that of your children."

Bishop Henderson's talk was directed, he said, to the official boards of the church and the laymen, in "leading the church to a spiritual triumph."

"We must use the same procedure as Jesus. If people would read the New Testament instead of listening to other people's version of it, they would be nearer Pentecost."

"There will not be a controversy in the Cincinnati area of the Metho-

DEATH SENTENCE IN BOMBING TRIALS IS APPROVED BY COURT

Say Moscow Central Committee Knew Of Planned Outrage

Sofia, May 20.—Court of appeals today affirmed the death sentence passed on three of the convicted principals in the Sept. 1923 cathedral bombing, which claimed 160 lives.

Those condemned were Friedman, sacristan of the cathedral; Col. Koeff and Zagorsky.

The sentences were sent to King Boris for his signature. It was believed the hangings would take place in the public square before the ruins of the cathedral.

Sofia, Bulgaria, May 20.—The central committee at Moscow knew the Sept. 1923 cathedral at Sofia was to be bombed, according to a document read in the trial at Vratza of nineteen persons who are charged with complicity in the plot to overthrow the Bulgarian government.

Details of the trial reaching here today showed that testimony was given that after a conference in Moscow, in 1924, definite steps were taken to carry forward the insurrection plot.

Special couriers were sent from Moscow to Bulgaria, with instructions to enter their followers in groups of four and six and that they all were to initiate with agrarians in the common aim to establish a soviet republic in Bulgaria, witnesses testified.

The whole district was carefully organized.

In a similar way organization was carried on in other districts under the direction of the military chief for the soviet district, Ivan Nenoff the testimony brought out.

Under Nenoff was a subcommittee of five members which spent large sums of money.

COUZENS COMMITTEE DRAWS CONGRESS IN ENFORCEMENT DRIVE

Legislative Remedies To
Be Asked—Rum War
Continues

Washington, May 20.—Congress was drawn into the government's gigantic drive to enforce prohibition when the Couzens senatorial committee today began consideration of proposals for placing new teeth in the dry law.

While the administration's police agencies continued their heavy bombardment of rum runners and bootleggers, the committee planned to aid the dry forces by calling on congress to provide legislative remedies next fall. Its recommendations would be based on the needs of the dry forces as revealed by government officials.

The rum war continued unabated with the administration determined to enforce the dry law "to the limit." The treasury department's "navy" tightened up its blockade of "rum row" in the Atlantic while planning a similar raid on Pacific smugglers.

The department of justice meanwhile aided the drive by approving a series of dry raids in Detroit under direction of a federal attorney and urged wider use of the "padlock" injunction, in closing "blind tigers."

Congressional aid will be proposed through legislation making the enforcement agencies more efficient.

Among the proposals under consideration by the Couzens committee are these:

- 1—Legislation to centralize the problem of bringing criminal prosecutions against dry law violators;
- 2—A plan to co-ordinate all federal dry agencies for the purpose of eliminating interdepartmental jealousies;
- 3—Application of the civil service laws to the prohibition unit with higher salaries for investigators;
- 4—Erection of new safeguards to prevent fraudulent use of liquor withdrawal permits in order to "dry up" leaks in federal warehouses and distilleries; and
- 5—Congressional aid to the dry forces in attacking rum runners at the source of their supply.

Co-ordination of all dry agencies already has been started by General Lincoln C. Andrews, director of the present rum war.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT TO MAKE KNOWN WAR DEBT POLICY SOON

Will Call Experts Of Finance To Assist In Payment
Discussions

Paris, May 20.—By Saturday the French government expects to make known its policy regarding its war debt to the United States. A high official of the finance ministry said today that the government expected by that time to complete a draft of its proposal to Washington as a basis for negotiations.

President Painleve of the chamber of deputies, Finance Minister Caillaux and former Minister Briand, as a result of their meeting yesterday, have decided to call into their discussions, the financial experts Jacques Seydoux and Philippe Berthelot, this authority said.

"You can say," said this official, "that the war debt question is in a 'technical' stage, internally, because the French government is working out a technical basis for negotiation. Internationally, the negotiations between the United States and France have not reached a 'technical' stage of conversations between United States Ambassador Herrick, Finance Minister Caillaux and Foreign Minister Briand."

BEER AND AMERICAN COIN TO FLOW

Detroit, Mich., May 20.—Over in Ontario today things are humming. Bigger Canadians, keyed up to the task, are brushing dust off long unused bars and watch it hover in a swirl of dryness in hollow rooms. They laugh at the humor of it, for tomorrow afternoon the humidity of 4.4 percent beer will absorb the remaining remnants of dryness and the rooms will be set reverberating with American voices.

Promptly at 12:01 o'clock tomorrow, the great American race will be on. At that hour Ontario statutes will permit of taking of casks and casks of the 4.4 percent beverage from government warehouses. It will be sped by fast trucks to border city bars of the province and the clink of Canadian schupers and American money will merge merrily.

Over in Windsor, which is expecting the bulk of American trade, twelve licensed barrooms have been set up. In the Prince Edward Hotel, a large basement room has been made to resemble an old fashioned English tap room. The clerk's desk at the King George Hotel has been moved to the second floor and the lobby stands dedicated to the sale of the amber beverage. The British-American hotel has added thirty-five tables in anticipation of the rush. All in all, the twelve Windsor hotels to which licenses have been granted, will accommodate 5,000 persons.

Today came the announcement that Albert Dewey Wells, the American vice consul at Windsor, has sponsored the establishment of the American club.

The Hon. Mrs. Rena Elrod, Illinois woman representative, after voting for the State boxing bill was termed a "political Sapphira," by Bishop Thomas R. Quayle, of Oswego, Ill. She countered with a challenge to a boxing match, explaining she was confident she could "make the bishop eat his words."

CONTROVERSY OVER PUBLICITY PLACED ON "BIG BUSINESS"

Practice of Publishing
Charges Scored at
Chamber Meet

Washington, May 20.—The controversy in the federal trade commission over publicity was placed squarely on the doorstep of "Big Business" today, when Commissioner W. F. Humphrey presented the majority viewpoint to the convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Assailing the former commission practice of publishing preliminary charges against business organizations as "unjust to the defendant and insidiously dangerous to the public," Humphrey made a plea for general approval of the new policy of secrecy.

"I submit to you," he said, "whether or not our action is halting publicity of preliminary charges, many of which years later are found to be unwarranted, was right or wrong."

Humphrey's frank explanation of the majority attitude toward publicity, which has stirred up the bitterest row in the turbulent history of the trade body, made a profound impression 3,000 business leaders who crowded into the Washington auditorium to hear the address.

The minority attitude summed up by Commissioner John F. Nugent, asserts the new rule is grossly unfair because an organization guilty of a fraudulent trade practice, may escape proceedings and publicity by agreeing to halt its activities.

"The majority believe that those engaged in business are generally honest," Humphrey continued. "We believe that there should be some reasonable showing before branding as crooks those accused of breaking the anti-trust laws. We demand evidence; we refuse to convict on suspicion."

Formerly, when a complaint was received, investigations frequently superficial, were made and then charges and publicity were thrust upon organizations, he said, which in a wide number of cases were later found to be innocent.

"But the dismissal of the case brought no headlines in the press. It was no news. The original story, branding the firm as crooks, remained in the minds of the public. Irreparable damage was done American business by that practice."

Humphrey explained that the new rules did not apply to inherently fraudulent businesses, such as those violating the "blue sky" laws.

"The public interest demands immediate exposure of such parties. The commission will give the widest publicity in its dealings with crooks. Under no circumstances will we stipulate with dishonesty."

Humphrey predicted that 75 percent of the controversies before the commission would be settled fairly and honestly by means of the new stipulation rules, with a resultant saving to the taxpayers in the cost of trial.

FINISH FIGHT SEEMS CERTAIN ON OPENING OF COLUMBUS MEET

Ultra and Tolerant Conservatives Split On
Eve Of Session

Columbus, May 20.—Peace overtures undertaken in an effort to bring together warring factions of the Presbyterian church apparently had definitely failed today and a finish fight appears to be scheduled Thursday to decide control of the church.

A sharp alignment of ultra-conservatives against the more tolerant "constitutional conservatives" led by Dr. Charles R. Erdman, Princeton university professor and Princeton, N. J., pastor, had developed on the eve of the contest on the floor of the general assembly to elect a moderator of the church. The battle is over principles and strict adherence to the laws of the church.

Attempts by leaders of the militant fundamentalists, including Dr. Clarence F. McCartney, retiring moderator, with the support of the faction headed by W. J. Bryan, Florida lay commissioner, to induce Dr. Erdman, the leading candidate, to retire from the field in favor of Dr. William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State university were checkmated by Dr. Erdman, who sent word to the fundamentalists that the "fight was over principles not personalities."

Indications were today that the militants would combine back of Dr. Thompson, a former Presbyterian pastor, although backers of other candidates seeking the support of the Bryan-McCartney faction still were hoping that last minute developments would result in the election of their candidates.

Among those still considered were Dr. Harry H. Rogers, Kansas City, Mo. and Dr. Lapsley A. McAfee, Berkeley, California.

The modernists of the church are not expected to be heard from until the general assembly takes up consideration of the overture of the Chester, Pa., Presbytery calling for the extending of the New York Presbytery on charges of "long continued disloyalty to doctrinal standards," and "persistent disobedience to church mandates."

The Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick case in the First Presbyterian church, New York City, is involved. Election of a new New York Presbytery, which would be controlled by conservatives, is asked.

The New York leaders of the church will demand that the Presbytery be exonerated of charges, their reply to the Chester overture asserting that under the laws of the church the Presbytery has sole power to determine the qualifications of candidates for the ministry.

Pre-assembly evangelistic and missionary conferences will be continued here today and tonight.

The general assembly will get under way Thursday morning with devotional services, the sermon of the retiring moderator and the communion service. Election of moderator is scheduled Thursday afternoon.

CRISIS RAPIDLY NEARING BETWEEN FRENCH AND RIFFS

Tribesmen Massing For Decisive
Battle With French
Troops Now

Paris, May 20.—Dispatches from Fez today indicated the situation in French Morocco was rapidly approaching a crisis with Riffian tribesmen massing for a decisive battle with augmented forces of French soldiers.

Abd-El-Krim, Riff leader and sometimes known as the "Robin Hood of the desert," has ordered conscription of his troops and a general mobilization of the entire Riff strength, the dispatch stated.

The French were reported to be receiving heavy reinforcements and to be concentrating aeroplanes in an effort to reassure native tribes which are of doubtful loyalty and which the French feared might join Abd-El-Krim.

NAME OF MINISTER RECOMMENDED FOR O. S. & S. O. HOME JOB

Recommendation that the Rev. J. Norman King, teacher at Bluffton College, be appointed superintendent of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphan's Home here to succeed Sylvius Garver, has been received by Governor Donahey from General S. B. Stanberry, Cincinnati.

Although the recommendation was made to Governor Donahey, formal appointment of a superintendent is made by the board of trustees of the institution. The Rev. Mr. King is in Columbus attending the Presbyterian General Assembly. He was a chaplain with the seventy-eighth division during the World War and was awarded the distinguished service cross for gallant conduct. He is professor of social science at Bluffton.

About a dozen applications are now before the board of trustees of the institution, although names of applicants have not been given out. Rumor that Col. J. P. Elton, former superintendent on two different occasions, would again be named head of the institution, has not been supported. Mrs. Elton, who was chief matron here during the regime of her husband, is now in charge of the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware.

The board is expected to take action on an appointment at the next meeting, early in June. The term of the present heads of the institution expires July 1, by agreement with the board of trustees.

BETTER MAILING IS URGED BY OFFICIALS TO SAVE GREAT LOSS

The week of June 1 to 7 has been designated by the Xenia Postoffice as "Better Mailing Week," in accordance with instructions received from the postal department at Washington D. C., when a nation-wide campaign will be undertaken to reduce the loss occasioned by carelessness in addressing mail matter.

Postmaster C. S. Frazer asks that local organizations, business men, civic bodies, clubs and other concerns which are large users of mail, co-operate with the postal department in the campaign by having the subject discussed at meetings. Greater care in mailing is urged.

According to Postmaster Frazer, the dead letter offices of the nation claimed 21,000,000 letters and 805,000 parcels last year. A total of 100,000 letters were mailed in perfectly blank envelopes and $55,000 in cash is removed annually from misdirected envelopes.

It cost the postal department $1,740,000 last year to look up addresses. This vast sum could be saved and the dead letter office abolished if each piece of mail carried a return address and if each parcel was wrapped in a stout piece of paper and tied with strong cord, the bulletin received by Postmaster Frazer stated.

The dead letter office is the cemetery of valuable mail entombed in misdirected envelopes, and 20,000,000 letters go there yearly, it is pointed out by Postmaster Frazer.

"Every man knows his own address if not that of his correspondent," declared Postmaster Frazer.

HAVE YOU THE FOUR KEYS?

If you intend to speculate, get a seasoned trader to take you to a brokerage office and give you a few biographies.

In the trading room of almost any brokerage concern you can see graphically what speculation will do to the outsider. Almost always there will be a little group of would-be financial wizards who have lost everything except their passion for speculation.

The only thing these fellows can do is talk stocks, give worthless tips and hope for more money to speculate with. They are chronic "hangers on," looking for a windfall so they can start out again on a shoe string and a ventually "get Wall Street by the tail."

Look them over and get their stories before you decide to speculate. It will be worth your while.

MISSIONARY MEETING OF INTEREST TUESDAY

The Women's Missionary meeting of the First Baptist Church was held at the church Tuesday afternoon. The subject chosen for the afternoon's study was "China's Real Revolution," and Miss Fuelling gave an interesting talk upon various phases of missionary work in China and the mission they were trying to fulfill. There is need for more missionaries for the foreign field and this point should be stressed more on the minds of the church goers, she said.

The hostess for the afternoon was Mrs. Fred Anderson.

Middle Age Ills

No longer need thousands be distressed and run-down with bladder and kidney troubles, sour stomach, gas and torpid liver—causing tired feeling, backaches, rheumatic pains, etc. Physicians have known for years of a remarkable Holland oil which restores the run-down organs to normal working order often within 24 hours. The only reason why it has not been widely used was its very disagreeable taste. But this has now been easily overcome by putting it up in tasteless capsules under the name of Red Mill Hasleren Oil. You will be amazed how quickly it banishes your distressing symptoms and you feel like a new person. Costs only 50 cents, and sold under an absolute money-back guarantee. Ask these druggists:

COVERLTS WOVEN YEARS AGO NOW STIR FOLKS

Back in the days of 1800 when the automobiles of the good folk of Xenia snorted and shook their manes and one could park one's gallant steed without a tail light, on a little side street there was a little shop in which worked a little old man from morning 'til evening weaving rare pieces of cloth into beautiful designs that have suddenly come into the limelight.

In the dingy little shop in one corner by the window stood an old loom and around it were scraps of cloth, bits of bright colored threads and unfinished handiwork. At the loom sat the weaver who worked with nimble fingers with the thread that formed some of the loveliest coverlets ever woven. Sold for probably a pittance, the coverlets went their way into the world and passed from hand to hand and generation to generation until now they are prized as heirlooms. Probably other pieces of cloth have been more priceless, there are others older but to Xenians who lay claim to D. Cosley, weaver, the little coverlets hold a treasure of interest.

Little did the weaver dream that in the year 1925 would specimens of his handiwork claim the attention they are now receiving, but the little weaver was not a weaver of dreams!

The latest addition to the collection of coverlets made by D. Cosley, is owned by Mrs. Will Bootes of the Hook Road, who claims that her coverlet beats the record so far. Woven in the year 1847 it is still well preserved and the cloth as good as the day it was finished. Mrs. Charles Devoe stands second in the contest with a coverlet woven in the year 1849. A Cincinnati resident stands third with a coverlet woven in 1852.

ECHOES OF GAZETTE AND REPUBLICAN COOK SCHOOL

The excellent results of the Gazette-Republican Cooking School conducted a few weeks ago at the McKinley School Auditorium by Mrs. Mary Brown-Lewers, internationally known cooking expert, are being noted by Phillip Diehl, local meat dealer.

Mr. Diehl says that women who formerly depended entirely upon the dealer for the selection of meats now come into the shop with a definite knowledge of just what cut or section of meat they want and ask for it by name.

For many months he has had a chart illustrating the various cuts of meat hanging in his shop. He says many women who never before even noticed the chart now study it carefully and discuss the various cuts represented. During the cooking school a representative of the Focke Meat Company of Dayton, came to this city and gave a highly instructive meat cutting demonstration and the helpful results are being made evident to the local meat dealers by the intelligent buying of the women attending the school.

Not only has the cooking school had this effect noticeable in the meat business but other dealers whose products were discussed at the school find a like situation.

ASPHALT STREETS BEING REPAIRED

Repair work on part of East Main Street is practically completed, it was announced Wednesday by City Manager S. O. Hale. Contract for the work of repairing various asphalt streets in the city was given the Republic Asphalt Company, Dayton since the Dayton concern has an asphalt plant at Wilmington and is the only company located near Xenia that has such facilities.

The firm which originally constructed the streets gave bond to keep them in repair for five years and as this contract is ended, the Dayton firm was engaged for the work.

It is planned to next repair East Second Street and fill up holes that have placed this portion of the street in bad condition.

WILL CARRY BRYAN FARM ACCEPTANCE TO SUPREME COURT

A norder directing Attorney General C. C. Crabe to carry to the Ohio Supreme Court to obtain a ruling testing the validity of the state's acceptance of the John Bryan farm, Yellow Springs, was made Wednesday by Governor Vic Donahey.

Passing the act over the Governor's veto, a law was enacted two years ago by the state legislature accepting the farm.

The grant of John Bryan was accepted by the state on the condition that public religious worship would be prohibited on the land.

The state board of control and the Ohio department station which had charge of the administration of the land, were made defendants in a suit brought in Franklin County courts recently, seeking to prevent the board from carrying out the provisions of the law. The law was constitutional, it was held by the court.

The attorney general was directed by Governor Donahey Wednesday to bring the additional suit to further test the case.

"I am not satisfied," declared Governor Donahey, "with letting the case rest after this decision. The constitutionality of the act has not been thoroughly enough tested."

AMERICAN WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMP LOSES TO BRITISH CHAMP

Troon, Scotland, May 20—Larks sang their merry lay in the tree tops along the fairways today but their song found no response in the gallant little heart of Miss Glenna Collett, former American women's golf champion. Fighting gamely to the last, Miss Collett went down to defeat at the capable hands of Miss Joyce Wethered, perennial British champion, in the third round of the women's open championship.

The score was 4 up and 3 to play, the American ending defeat on the fifteenth green, after a ten foot putt had rolled off the line.

A gallery of 3,000 spectators followed the two stars. Miss Collett's score on the first nine was two over par.

Miss Collett continued to err on the way back. She shot into the bunkers on both the tenth and eleventh holes, Miss Wethered winning the tenth with a birdie four and the eleventh with a birdie three.

The American champion managed to halve the twelfth and thirteenth holes by turning in par fours. She dropped the fourteenth hole to Miss Wethered, however, when she had to take three putts.

TAGGING ALL BASES

Dr. Adolfo Luque performed a major operation on the Red's losing streak by putting the Braves under an anaesthetic and removing a victory by a score of seven to three. It was the Red's first victory in the last six games.

The Tigers made human hamburger out of Jones and Johnson in the sixth and seventh innings and won easily from the Yankees, 11 to 5. Wells and Cole left-handing the Huggins silly.

Kauffman's pitching and the hitting of Griffith and Friberg stopped the Giants winning streak of eight straight the Cubs stepping into an 8 to 2 verdict.

Harper's homer off Watson with the bases filled gave the Phillies an 8 to 4 decision over the Cardinals.

Walter Johnson, pinch hitting for Oden, socked a homer off Shaute with one on in the ninth and the Senators beat the Indians, 4 to 3.

Except for Miller's homer with two on in the ninth, Lyons had the Athletics absolutely in the hip pocket and the White Sox won, 4 to 3.

The Browns hit Quinn with enthusiasm and wop from the Red Sox, 8 to 2. Bush finally staking himself to a victory.

Dazzy Vance got 1,000 as the league's most valuable chattel and the Dodgers got the ball game when they fell on Morrison for five runs in the second, the Pirates finishing second, 9 to 5.

PLANS MATURING FOR ANNUAL OBSERVANCE OF DECORATION DAY

Final arrangements for the observance of Memorial Day in Xenia, were laid at the joint meeting of patriotic organizations of the city in the G. A. R. Hall, Court House, Tuesday evening.

The invitation of the First United Presbyterian Church, to hold the joint memorial service the Sunday preceding Memorial Day, May 24, in the church, was accepted. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, and the Rev. J. P. Lytle will preach the sermon.

Patriotic and fraternal organizations are urged to take part in the parade, the chief feature of Memorial Day. The line will form at 2 o'clock and march to Woodland Cemetery, where the Rev. F. W. Stanton, pastor of the First M. E. Church will deliver the address. The Home Band and battalion will participate in the parade, it was announced at the meeting.

H. H. Conklin, C. L. Darlington and Mrs. George Kaiser will form the reception committee at the cemetery ceremonies. Music will be furnished by a male quartet. Anyone who has a machine to take part in the parade is asked to call L. S. Barnes.

Troops One and Two, Boy Scouts will assist in the observance, also, it was announced Wednesday by Scoutmaster R. H. Kingsbury.

Ten members of the troops will report at Woodland Cemetery at 9 o'clock Friday morning, May 29, to make plans to gather flowers over the city during the day. Flowers must be left at the G. A. R. Hall in the Court House or the American Legion Headquarters not later than 2 o'clock that day, to be made up into bouquets. The boy scouts will place the flowers on the graves at 5:30 o'clock, that evening.

Dr. C. P. Proudfit, pastor of the Second U. P. Church will preach a sermon at the memorial service to be held at the American Legion rooms, in the Kingsbury building, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The public is invited to the services.

Business men are urged to display the American flag at their business houses, Memorial Day. A plan is being furthered to have flags at all homes in the city, on Memorial Day, as all other patriotic days.

Thomas Gilroy and Mrs. Frank Hustmyer are members of the American Legion committee, that reported at the meeting that plans had been completed for Memorial Day services at the Catholic Cemetery. Services there will be held about 9 o'clock the morning of Memorial Day.

Mrs. Virginia Ellsberry, Xenia, will deliver the Gettysburg Address at Beaver Cemetery, during the observance there.

Representatives of the G. A. R., W. R. C., S. of V., American Legion, Legion Auxiliary and other organizations attended the meeting Tuesday evening.

Dr. Hoffman's talk was augmented by lantern slides. He was assisted by Mr. Fitch, a college student.

A directors' meeting was held after the talk, which followed the weekly luncheon. Plans were perfected for the district Kiwanis meeting in Xenia May 27, when hundreds of Kiwanians from this section of the state will come here.

The chief entertaining feature will be the appearance of Jules Brazil, of Canada, internationally known comedian. Other entertainment will be arranged as an addition to the business sessions of the all-day conference.

James D. Adair, is chairman of the decorating committee for the convention, and he will request Xenia merchants to display their curb flags the afternoon of the district meeting.

Howard Smith, Dayton, Lieutenant governor of this Kiwanis District, will be honor guest at the meeting.

BOTH SIDES MARK TIME IN DISPUTE OVER "BLUE LAWS"

All was quiet along the Potomac in the Sunday "blue law" controversy Wednesday.

Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Marshall admitted receiving a second demand in the form of a letter from Attorney F. L. Johnson on behalf of his unknown clients that "blue laws" be enforced in Xenia, but again declined to make a statement of his position on the question.

The prosecutor was occupied with other duties Wednesday he said and did not indicate whether he would give Johnson an answer to his second letter.

Attorney Johnson could not say Wednesday what further action would be taken in the matter should the prosecutor fail to answer his second letter satisfactorily declaring he would have to confer with his clients. Meanwhile both sides are marking time.

The second letter was sent to Prosecutor Marshall in what is believed to be an attempt to force him to show his hand and explain his position that Johnson's clients may act accordingly. The prosecutor thus far has maintained silence.

The jury consisting of six women and six men was only chosen after a special venire of twelve names were drawn at the start of the trial.

Following is the jury: Branson Shank, Minnie Faulkner, Lampton Smith, William Kyne, Nannie Oglesbee, Gary Ringer, Anna B. Davis, Axie Gushwa, A. R. Weaver Frank Keyes, Mrs. J. H. Benbow, and Mrs. J. H. Canaday.

The special venire of twelve picked by Judge S. C. Wright was as follows: Henry Petz, Frank Keyes, Ralph James, H. A. Higgins, Thea G. White, Mrs. J. H. Benbow, Mrs. J. H. Canaday, Elmer Waddle, Mrs. Elizabeth Hanley, Clara O'Brien, Madge Cooley, and E. H. Heathman.

A motion made of Attorney C. L. Darlington, counsel for Prince, that the special venire be drawn from the jury wheel in Common Pleas Court, that a more fair representation from Greene County could be had, was overruled by Judge Wright.

Attorneys for both sides made use of but two of their allotted four peremptory challenges.

DRILL FOR OIL
Chillicothe, May 20—A force of men working day and night shifts have started drilling for oil on the Amos Brown farm, near Hallsville, Ross county.

The project is being financed by eastern capital. It is believed by geologists that this community is rich in oil and gas deposits.

MODISH MITZI—Dots Win With Universal Suffrage

By JAY V. JAY

One polka dot can't make a summer or a fashion or anything else very much, but hundreds of them together make the smartest styles of the season. This new dress of Mitzi's is a white crepe de chine with dots of blue and orange and an orange silk for trimming.

After careful consideration Mitzi thinks she will invest in dots a little more heavily and the best value she can find is this dotted suit-of-rep with a lining and dress of the speckled silk. The more dots there are to the square inch the better value.

You'll notice that her hat is trimmed with silk to match her dress. Coofer notices it also, but not so as Mitzi notices his polka dots. They are both confessing to secret partiality for polka various colors and sizes—

The consequences are that Mitzi goes with the Goofier to give him courage and moral support. He has been admiring this shirt—which is new and smart and is being worn, but which seemed to the Goofier to be perhaps not quite conservative. After seeing Mitzi he realizes that it is.

NEW YORK ATHLETIC COMMISSION WILL HAIL NEW LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION SOON

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, May 20—With the utmost gravity and aplomb, the New York State Athletic Commission is about to hail a new lightweight champion of the world from among the four remaining survivors of an elimination tourney. He will be named to replace Benny Leonard, the well known and dutiful son, and it will be his driving home a needle in place of a nail.

There are four men left in the running and none of them assay more than fifty per cent. They are named in the order of their ability, Jimmy Goodrich, of Buffalo; Benny Valgar, of New York and the foreign entries, Loayza, of Chile and Olanio of Cuba. Within a month, one of them will be duly escorted to the throne upon which Gans, Nelson, McAuliffe, Lavigne and other immortals sat, and invited to make himself at home.

No peasant in the palace could occupy a more incongruous role. Somehow, the lightweight division never has had an unrepresentative champion but it cannot very well escape the stigma now. He will not serve to be coupled in the same company with Gans, Nelson, and the others.

Goodrich is perhaps the best of the lot and at one time, he looked the part of a fighter. But during recent months, he has been in a steady slump and only through the grace of circumstances has he reached the semi-final round of the tournament. The spectators almost rioted when his first round match with Eddie Kid Wagner, of Philadelphia was called a draw at the end of ten rounds. But they fairly frothed at the mouth when Goodrich was named as the winner after two extra rounds.

Both decisions are alleged to have been the "falsest." Many likewise did not agree with the verdict that gave Goodrich the decision over Clyde Jeakle and two nights ago, the Buffalo entry was awarded the fight when hit low by Sammy Mandell. The latter was a heavy winner on points when the foul occurred. So much for Goodrich. He is the man who is generally favored to survive the ultimate issue, and Valgar, a light-hitting, holding, safety first young man, is next in line.

The foreigners, Loayza and Olanio, can be dismissed without preamble. They are in the tourney only to give it tone and refinement, or something. Mandell, of course, was the best man in the lists. He is wonderfully fast and his gameness is above suspicion. He is an interesting boxer to watch and altogether is the only lightweight in view at the present, who could be acceptable as a champion. The winner of the tourney will receive scant consideration until he takes on Mandell in a post series match.

DAYTON DEFEATS ANTIOCH COLLEGE AT YELLOW SPRINGS

The University of Dayton baseball bunched hits and runs in the fourth and sixth innings enabling it to defeat the Antioch College nine for the second time this season at Yellow Springs Tuesday afternoon by a score of 10 to 3.

Antioch sluggers gathered ten hits off the offerings of Caufield, Dayton pitcher, but the latter enjoyed success in keeping them well scattered.

Dawson started the game on the hill for Antioch but was sent to the showers in the fourth after a deluge of hits was productive of four runs. Wood, his successor, held the visitors scoreless the next inning but was touched for five tallies in the sixth.

Alexander played a whirlwind game for Antioch at second base besides cracking out a single, double and triple.

Dawson and Wood displayed a tendency toward wildness on the mound, Dawson granting seven passes and Wood four. Dawson was probably the most effective of the trio of pitchers and struck out eight Daytonians. Score by innings: Dayton 0 0 0 4 0 5 0 0 1-10. Antioch 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 0-3.

After ten lengthy years Connie Mack, now beyond 60, appears to have performed a "comeback" by getting together a ball club that at this time seems to be almost as great as his peerless combination years ago. Mack is not a cheap magnate and spent plenty of dough for talent in the minor leagues and elsewhere. At present the Athletics are leading the league one full game over the Cleveland Indians and are hitting and fielding good. Sam Gray, pitcher for the Athletics, is going good and is leading the league with seven wins to date while he is yet to be defeated. He pitched fair ball last season winning eight and losing seven contests. He had an earned run average of 3.97 which is not any too good. This season he has turned in some stellar victories. Twice he has shut the New York Yanks out. He has given 17 walks and fanned 25 in the seven games he has pitched an is certain to prove an asset to the Mackmen in their quest for the pennant.

Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, has done little or nothing in defense of his title. In most of the bout his opponents have been setps or second raters. He refused to meet Dave Shade, California welter and was suspended by the New York boxing commission and was just reinstated recently. He has met Slade twice, both times before he fought for the championship. In the first match in 1921 he got the decision over Shade as he injured his hand and Shade lost on a technical kayo. They met in Newark, N. J., some time later and Shade beat Walker plenty bad. The following year he met and defeated Jack Britton for the welterweight crown. Walker is to meet Harry Greb, Pittsburgh Jumping Jack and middleweight champ of the world. His title will not be at stake because of the weight difference. This meeting will be a good test of his ability as Greb has a style that is hard to figure and if Walker fathoms it he will have established his right to be classed as a real champion.

The New York Giants continue to lead in the National League and at present have a five and one-half game lead over Brooklyn. During the past week they won eight straight games and lost but one and this was to Chicago on Tuesday. Brooklyn, in second place, scored a half dozen victories while losing three games. The Reds beat the Braves Tuesday and broke their losing streak and jumped into a tie for fourth place with the Pirates. The Phillies are playing good ball and are in the first division, which seems rather peculiar. They are hitting and fielding in excellent fashion. Fonseca, Hakan, Hawks, Burns, Sand and Harper are all hitting over the .300 mark and this is one reason why they are up there.

audience that filled the auditorium. The next West Ohio M. E. Conference, will be held September 1 at Trinity Church, Lima, O. District Superintendent E. O. Crist, announced.

Splendid addresses on various phases of church work featured the three sessions of the conference, which opened at 9:30 o'clock, with a devotional period, in charge of L. W. Patton.

Organization, roll call and minute business took place until 10:30 o'clock, when Professor John Finley Williamson, Dayton director of the famous Westminster Choir, spoke of church music and the importance of this part of the service. He led the congregation in several numbers.

The next address, the last one of the morning session was given by G. B. Parkin, on "Vital Needs of the Minister of Today." He spoke of the growth of the church and the new demands on the pastoral leader, outlining some of the main projects of the denomination.

Dinner was served at 12 o'clock and the afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock, with devotions led by C. L. Ruehler.

Bishop Henderson's address was followed by a talk on "The Conference Endowment Fund," by E. C. Harley, Dayton. He gave a report of the finances of the district and urged the churches of the district to further effort.

"Stewardship" was the subject of C. W. Brashares, Dayton. He stressed the high importance of this service and laid down several rules for the church leaders and laymen to follow.

E. A. Seamands, a missionary to India, who is home on furlough, talked on "World Service," at the evening service. He drew on his experiences in the foreign field to illustrate his points in an interesting manner. He spoke of the scope of the foreign mission work and the large accomplishments that are being made by the church in other fields.

The Rev. C. E. Turley, Dayton, spoke of "Christ and Youth," stressing the importance of the young people in the church, and the consideration with which their activities should be met.

The Rev. Mr. Turley and Mr. Seamands took the place of Bishop Henderson in the evening since he was first scheduled for that program. The evening devotions were led by the Rev. V. F. Brown, of Trinity Church. The Trinity Choir, in charge of Mrs. W. H. McGarvey, sang an anthem, Mrs. McGarvey led the afternoon singing and sang a solo.

Members of the Ministers' Wives' Association of the District enjoyed a luncheon and program in the primary room of the church at the noon hour. This is always an enjoyable feature of the district gatherings.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHATER XLVII.
Long smouldering rebellion flamed up in Lilah.
"Mother! You've just got to stop interfering!" Her voice failed her, and tears crept into her eyes.
Mother Pharey stared. This was a new experience, to be shrieked at in such a fashion by her daughter. What did the girl mean!
"I WILL NOT allow him—or us, to be bossed as you have bossed me! Why didn't you let me speak to him about the change in the wedding plans! As it is, you've crammed the change down his throat, and after he had suggested the time that he wanted us to get married!" She was crying now, and each word was uttered fiercely.
"I won't have you arranging our plans as you like. I won't! I WON'T!"
Pain was spread over Mother Pharey's face. She, too, was ready to cry. She had only—she couldn't understand.
"Lilah!" she exclaimed, "I didn't mean—"
"No, you always MEAN well! You're ALWAYS right!" Lilah sat down wearily.
Each word cut deeper into Mother Pharey's heart. She stood gazing helplessly at her daughter. She couldn't understand.
"But he said it would be all right..." she began.
"Of course, he would," Lilah interrupted. "What else could he do? He had no choice! You've offended him. He gave me the coldest of goodbyes. Oh—" She bent her head upon her arm, weeping.
"Lilah, dearest, I didn't mean—" She paused, comprehending at last. For a moment she gazed at her daughter, then bent down on her knees at Lilah's side.
"Forgive me dearest. I'm sorry. I realize—" Lilah raised her tear-stained face. "Never mind, Mamma." She patted her parent on the shoulder. "I'm sorry I spoke to you as I did. I know you didn't—" She arose. "Let's go to bed." "I'll explain to him, Lilah. I'll—" Her daughter turned upon her. "No, No! I don't want you to explain. That would make matters worse. Oh, mamma! Why won't you understand! I just want you to let US arrange our wedding." She paused. "I warn you that if he wants to have the wedding according to our original plans, I'll marry him then, regardless of whether you're here or in Hawaii." Mrs. Pharey winced. Aggrieved until now, with some realization of having erred, this last remark of her daughter's made her angry.
"You talk as if this was the last chance you were ever going to have to get married. If he is as finicky as all that, then he isn't worth marrying. Are you going to be under his little finger after you're married? Don't be so foolish as well as foolish! He hasn't social position, and not much money. What'll he ever be? The Mailboy boy has—" "Mother! I won't listen to you another second. I didn't think you liked Michael, and now I know it. I wouldn't marry Abe Mallory even if I couldn't marry Michael." She was crying again. "Mother, you just won't understand!" Her voice became low. "I love him." She climbed the stairs to her room in anguish. If only this evening hadn't lost her Michael! (To be continued.)

A Saving of $36,000,000

According to the most conservative calculation, American motorists pay $36,000,000 a year for chassis lubrication.

And that sum represents but a fraction of the saving that motorists would enjoy if all cars were, like the Cleveland Six, equipped with the

"One-Shot" Lubrication System

(Licensed under Bowes Products Co. patents)

This exclusive, high pressure system does more than eliminate the actual cost of having a garage or service station lubricate vital bearings.

It eliminates the inconvenience of leaving the car to have it done or of doing the job yourself. It reduces service, maintenance, and depreciation costs. And it guarantees a properly functioning, smoothly operating car at all times.

For you simply step on a plunger and every moving part is flushed with clean, live lubricant. Any Cleveland Six dealer will show you.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL SHOTS THREE

CHILD USES PISTOL WHEN FATHER CAUGHT WITH "OTHER WOMAN"

Mother Shot Accidentally
Trying to Save Husband
—Girl Held

Chicago, May 20.—Two women were wounded, one perhaps fatally and a man was less seriously hurt today as a result of a 15 year old high school girl's dealing out of "justice" from the barrel of a .38 calibre revolver.

Her victims were:
Miss Agnes Simneck, 28, alleged "other woman," who the girl charges had infatuated her father;

William Wunsch, her father, and
Birdie, his wife, who threw herself in front of her infuriated daughter and received the bullet intended for her husband.

The girl, Lucille Wunsch, is being held by police.

The shooting took place in the rear of the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Trapp, Riverdale with whom Miss Simneck made her home.

It was there that the daughter and mother had gone to spy on the father and husband, whose alleged indiscretions with Miss Simneck, said to have extended over a period of two years, had been discovered by Lucille and reported to her mother.

All through a long night they waited in the darkness until about midnight, they heard the crunching footsteps on the gravel walk which told of someone approaching. Lucille's hand stole under the cape she was wearing and as her father and Miss Simneck rounded the corner, her father's arm around his alleged affinity, the gun which she had carried with her, spoke once a staccato bark on the stillness of the quiet Chicago suburb.

"You've broken up our home," a childish voice cried out stridently on the night air.

Then the pistol's message of death rang out again and a woman lay crumpled up at the feet of the girl, who stood over her, her childish figure, silhouetted against the bright moonlight sky, the smoking gun clutched in her hand.

Wunsch yelled and ran toward his daughter. The gun was lowered menacingly but just as the childish finger squeezed the trigger, Mrs. Wunsch threw herself forward, stopping the bullet intended for the man, who had played false to his vows.

But Lucille was in a frenzy; she did not heed to the mother's voice, which cried out pleadingly:

"Lucille, Lucille, why did you do it? Why didn't you tell me you had the gun?"

Another shot and the gun was emptied and the father had been added to the list of victims.

Wunsch and his wife were taken to a hospital, where it was said both probably would recover. Miss Simneck, however, was found to have suffered bullet wounds in both lungs and physicians say they believe she will die.

Lucille, oldest of five children, was being held on an open charge today, while the police decide what disposition to make of her case.

Since taken into custody, she has showed remorse only for wounding her mother.

Of her father and Miss Simneck, she said:

"They cheated me and lied. They deserve what they got."

NO ARRESTS NEAR IN PROBE OF MURDER OF BROMLEY, KY., WOMAN

Postmortem Shows Criminal
Attack And That Death Was
Due To Beating

Cincinnati, May 20.—Coroner Handley said today that Allen Williams, 38, of Bromley, Ky., who was found murdered in a wood just outside the city limits of Cincinnati, had been criminally attacked by her slayer, or slayers.

This was determined by a postmortem examination.

Detectives announced that Joseph Cavanaugh, Dayton, Ky., admitted he was to have met Mrs. Williams in Cincinnati, Saturday night. The woman did not keep the tryst and it is believed that instead, she met the person or persons who lured her to her death.

The last time her husband, John Williams, a Bromley, Ky., real estate agent and builder, saw her, was Saturday noon when he drove her to the car line and declares she boarded a car bound for Cincinnati.

Death came to Mrs. Williams, Coroner Handley says, as the result of a terrific beating which fractured her skull. Her son's necktie, which she wore when she left Saturday, was knotted around her neck twice, leading to the first impression that strangulation had been the cause of death.

Mrs. Williams owned several buildings in Cincinnati. Two diamond rings, valued at $600 and $60 in money which she had when last seen are missing. She had been married three times.

Cruelty Charged

Mrs. Cullen Landis planned to ask separate maintenance in Los Angeles courts as her answer to the divorce suit of her film actor husband, who charged that she nagged him unbearably. She avers the actor was cruel to her, and that although he earned $1,000 weekly, he failed to contribute to her support.

MOTHER PRAYS FOR PISTOL-USER

Girl Rather Victim Dies
Than Make Mother
Unhappy

Chicago, May 20.—"Mother's, praying for me because mother believes in God."

"She went through all the hard years with my father, pinching and scraping to clothe us five children and then he cheated with her for a pretty face."

"The tell me this Anna may die. I'm sorry, of course, but I'd rather she'd die than live and make my mother unhappy again."

This is the philosophy which poured from the lips of 15 year old Lucille Wunsch today as she sat in a police cell awaiting the disposition of her case by the police who charged her with shooting Miss Anna Simneck, her father's alleged affinity, her mother, Mrs. Birdie Wunsch and her father, William.

"It was two years ago," the child continues, her eyes looking unafraid at her questioners, "that father met this Anna. She lives at George Trapps. He's her stepfather. She's pretty, prettier and younger than my mother."

"My father and this Anna began to go out together. My mother went to George Trapp and told him what was going on. But Trapp didn't do anything."

"And a year ago, my mother caught Anna Simneck and my father together and she ran Anna all the way home with a hatpin. But my father and Anna kept sneaking out to meet each other."

"My mother's eyes have always been red lately from crying. And when she would talk to my father plead with him to leave Anna alone, she did it when she didn't think I could hear—she'd curse her."

"One day I told mother that I knew and that I would help her."

"So last night, we waited for them to come back to Trapps."

Here the tale breaks. The girl does not discuss the shooting, bridging that event with a brief silence and plunging into its consequences.

"My father will get well," she says, "and"—there is certain hardness, a hardness beyond the years, about her lips—"when he does, he'd better be good to my mother!"

"You Can't Improve The Methods Of Jesus", Bishop Tells Methodist Meeting

Church Official Criticizes American Legion for Un-Christian-Like Attitude to Japs—Ministers and Laymen Attend Sessions

"You can't believe in Jesus unless you believe in what He came to do. You can't improve on the methods of Jesus," were two of the declarations of Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, resident bishop of the Cincinnati Area, at the Dayton District Conference of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Trinity Church, this city, Tuesday afternoon.

"It is the laymen that have to decide as to whether the church is going to get to Pentecost, or whether they will block the path!"

"Do you believe you ought to help in getting the gospel of Jesus to just the people you like or to everyone? We have to love a lot of people we don't like. I believe that there were a number of people that Jesus did not like, but whom He won through love."

"We don't always say but we think a lot of un-Christ-like things about the people of foreign tongues and creeds. Language, race and tradition has nothing to do with getting to Pentecost. Anything that stirs social, religious or creedal prejudice blocks the purpose of the Holy Spirit."

"There is a certain organization, and I will name it by name the American Legion of Ohio that has filed a protest against the settlement of Japanese in Northeastern Ohio. That is not Christian-like."

"You will never be happy until you are happy in Christ's way. You can't take part of the Gospel, Christ's commissions and ignore them, throwing part in the waste basket."

"The World Service Program of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is the only opportunity for that church to answer the call of spreading the Gospel. And there are only three ways in this complex modern life, to fill Christ's commissions: First, by investing in prayer; second, by investing your possessions and third, by investing your personality and that of your children."

Bishop Henderson's talk was directed, he said, to the official boards of the church and the laymen, in "leading the church to a spiritual triumph."

"We must use the same procedure as Jesus. If people would read the New Testament instead of listening to other people's version of it, they would be nearer Pentecost."

"There will not be a controversy in the Cincinnati area of the Metho-

DEATH SENTENCE IN BOMBING TRIALS IS APPROVED BY COURT

Say Moscow Central Committee Knew Of Planned Outrage

Sofia, May 20.—Court of appeals today affirmed the death sentence passed on three of the convicted principals in the Sept. 1923 cathedral bombing, which claimed 160 lives.

Those condemned were Friedman, sacristan of the cathedral; Col. Koeff and Zadgorsky.

The sentences were sent to King Boris for his signature. It was believed the hangings would take place in the public square before the ruins of the cathedral.

Sofia, Bulgaria, May 20.—The central committee at Moscow knew the Sept. 1923 cathedral at Sofia was to be bombed, according to a document read in the trial at Vratsa of nineteen persons who are charged with complicity in the plot to overthrow the Bulgarian government.

Details of the trial reaching here today showed that testimony was given that after a conference in Moscow, in 1924, definite steps were taken to carry forward the insurrection plot.

Special couriers were sent from Moscow to Bulgaria, with instructions to enter their followers in groups of four and six and that they all were to unite with agrarians in the common aim to establish a soviet republic in Bulgaria, witnesses testified.

The whole district was carefully organized.

In a similar way organization was carried on in other districts under the direction of the military chief for the soviet district, Ivan Nenoff the testimony brought out.

Under Nenoff was a subcommittee of five members which spent large sums of money.

"The Cincinnati Area has a definite part in spreading the gospel to the 'utmost parts of the earth' and church members can be sure of where every dollar they give is going," said Bishop Henderson, in telling of the mission work in foreign and home fields.

Bishop Henderson conducted a round table for ministers and laymen on "The Pentecost Proposal" following his address, while the remainder of the afternoon session was continued.

His address, was the high-light of the conference, and was heard by an

SEARCH FOR MISSING STATE WITNESS NOW OVERSHADOWS TRIAL

White Believed To Be In Florida—Jury Not
Seated

Chicago, May 20.—The proceedings at the court room where tedious hours are being spent in an effort to empanel a jury to try William D. Shepherd for the alleged murder of William Nelson McClintock, whose death made Shepherd a millionaire, pale into insignificance today as the state began a concerted effort to trace its missing witness—Robert White, whose testimony is considered almost vital to conviction.

White's absence was discovered yesterday when a bailiff went to his home to serve him with a summons to appear at the trial and today brought the charge from the state's attorney's office that the man, who, before the confession of Charles C. Faiman, Shepherd's co-defendant, identified Shepherd as a visitor at Faiman's National University of Science, had been offered $25,000, to leave town. This, and alleged threats on his life if he remained to testify, the state's attorney's office declared today, prompted the flight.

According to information gleaned in an overnight search, White now is in Florida, according to the state's attorney's office. In answer to the defense charge that White's disappearance was merely a result of his attempting to escape from the threats of the state which had intimidated him into incriminating Shepherd, State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe said the state had an affidavit to controvert "such ridiculous assertions."

There was no session of court this morning on account of Judge Thomas' absence at a funeral, but the examination of jurors was to be continued this afternoon.

IN CONVENTION

Columbus, O., May 20.—About 200 delegates are attending the sessions here today of the Ohio Restaurant Association at Hotel Deshler. Speakers included Myron Green, Kansas City president of the national organization and J. O. Mills, Columbus, past president of the state association.

BEER AND AMERICAN COIN TO FLOW

Detroit, Mich., May 20.—Over in Ontario today things are humming. Eager Canadians, keyed up to the task, are brushing dust off long unused bars and watch it hover in a swirl of dryness in holler rooms. They laugh at the humor of it, for tomorrow afternoon the humidity of 4.4 percent beer will absorb the remaining remnants of dryness and the rooms will be set reverberating with American voices.

Promptly at 12:01 o'clock tomorrow, the great American race will be on. At that hour Ontario statutes will permit of taking of casks and casks of the 4.4 percent beverage from government warehouses. It will be sped by fast trucks to border city bars of the province and the clink of Canadian schuppers and American money will merge merrily.

Over in Windsor, which is expecting the bulk of American trade, twelve licensed barrooms have been set up. In the Prince

COUZENS COMMITTEE DRAWS CONGRESS IN ENFORCEMENT DRIVE

Legislative Remedies To
Be Asked—Rum War
Continues

Washington, May 20.—Congress was drawn into the government's gigantic drive to enforce prohibition when the Couzens senatorial committee today began consideration of proposals for placing new teeth in the dry law.

While the administration's police agencies continued their heavy bombardment of rum runners and bootleggers, the committee planned to aid the dry forces by calling on congress to provide legislative remedies next fall. Its recommendations would be based on the needs of the dry forces as revealed by government officials.

The rum war continued unabated with the administration determined to enforce the dry law "to the limit." The treasury department's "navy" tightened up its blockade of "rum row" in the Atlantic while planning a similar raid on Pacific smugglers.

The department of justice meanwhile aided the drive by approving a series of dry raids in Detroit under direction of a federal attorney and urged wider use of the "padlock" injunction, in closing "blind tigers."

Congressional aid will be proposed through legislation making the enforcement agencies more efficient.

Among the proposals under consideration by the Couzens committee are these:

- 1—Legislation to centralize the problem of bringing criminal prosecutions against dry law violators;
- 2—A plan to co-ordinate all federal dry agencies for the purpose of eliminating interdepartmental jealousies;
- 3—Application of the civil service laws to the prohibition unit with higher salaries for investigators;
- 4—Erection of new safeguards to prevent fraudulent use of liquor withdrawal permits in order to "dry up" leaks in federal warehouses and distilleries; and
- 5—Congressional aid to the dry forces in attacking rum runners at the source of their supply.

Co-ordination of all dry agencies already has been started by General Lincoln C. Andrews, director of the present rum war.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT TO MAKE KNOWN WAR DEBT POLICY SOON

Will Call Experts Of Finance To
Assist In Payment
Discussions

Paris, May 20.—By Saturday the French government expects to make known its policy regarding its war debt to the United States. A high official of the finance ministry said today that the government expected by that time to complete a draft of its proposal to Washington as a basis for negotiations.

President Painleve of the chamber of deputies, Finance Minister Caillaux and former Minister Briand, as a result of their meeting yesterday, have decided to call into their discussions, the financial experts Jacques Seydoux and Philippe Berthelot, this authority said.

"You can say," said this official, "that the war debt question is in a 'technical' stage, internally, because the French government is working out a technical basis for negotiation. Internationally, the negotiations between the United States and France have not reached a 'technical' stage of conversations between Finance Minister Caillaux and Foreign Minister Briand."

BEER AND AMERICAN COIN TO FLOW

Edward Hotel, a large basement room has been made to resemble an old fashioned English tap room. The clerk's desk at the King George Hotel has been moved to the second floor and the lobby stands dedicated to the sale of the amber beverage. The British-American hotel has added thirty-five tables in anticipation of the rush. All in all, the twelve Windsor hotels to which licenses have been granted, will accommodate 5,000 persons.

Today came the announcement that Albert Dewey Wells, the American vice consul at Windsor, has sponsored the establishment of the American club.

A year's lease on a $75,000 private residence has been secured, and the club has been organized by fifty charter members most of them Americans in Windsor. The small initiation fee of $10 and dues of $2 a month owe their meagreness to the fact that the club expects to sustain itself by the sale of the new beer.

PEACE OVERTURES TO UNITE PRESBYTERIAN FACTIONS HAS FAILED

Bishop Dared

The Hon. Mrs. Rena Elrod, Illinois woman representative, after voting for the State boxing bill was termed a "political Sapphira," the female counterpart of Ananias, by Bishop Thomas R. Quayle, of Oswego, Ill. She countered with a challenge to a boxing match, explaining she was confident she could "make the bishop eat his words."

CONTROVERSY OVER PUBLICITY PLACED ON "BIG BUSINESS"

Practice of Publishing
Charges Scored at
Chamber Meet

Washington, May 20.—The controversy in the federal trade commission over publicity was placed squarely on the doorstep of "Big Business" today, when Commissioner W. F. Humphrey presented the majority viewpoint to the convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Assailing the former commission practice of publishing preliminary charges against business organizations as "unjust to the defendant and insidiously dangerous to the public," Humphrey made a plea for general approval of the new policy of secrecy.

"I submit to you," he said, "whether or not our action is halting publicity of preliminary charges, many of which years later are found to be unwarranted, was right or wrong."

Humphrey's frank explanation of the majority attitude toward publicity, which has stirred up the bitterest row in the turbulent history of the trade body, made a profound impression 3,000 business leaders who crowded into the Washington auditorium to hear the address.

The minority attitude summed up by Commissioner John F. Nugent, asserts the new rule is grossly unfair because an organization guilty of a fraudulent trade practice, may escape proceedings and publicity by agreeing to halt its activities.

"The majority believes that those engaged in business are generally honest," Humphrey continued. "We believe that there should be some reasonable showing before branding as crooks those accused of breaking the anti-trust laws. We demand evidence; we refuse to convict on suspicion."

Formerly, when a complaint was received, investigations frequently superficial, were made and then charges and publicity were thrust upon organizations, he said, which in a wide number of cases were later found to be innocent.

"But the dismissal of the case brought no headlines in the press. It was no news. The original story, branding the firm as crooks, remained in the minds of the public. Irreparable damage was done American business by that practice."

Humphrey explained that the new rules did not apply to inherently fraudulent businesses, such as those violating the "blue sky" laws.

"The public interest demands immediate exposure of such parties. The commission will give the widest publicity in its dealings with crooks. Under no circumstances will we stipulate with dishonesty."

Humphrey predicted that 75 per cent of the controversies before the commission would be settled fairly and honestly by means of the new stipulation rules, with a resultant saving to the taxpayers in the cost of trial.

FINISH FIGHT SEEMS CERTAIN ON OPENING OF COLUMBUS MEET

Ultra and Tolerant Conservatives Split On
Eve Of Session

Columbus, May 20.—Peace overtures undertaken in an effort to bring together warring factions of the Presbyterian church apparently had definitely failed today and a finish fight appears to be scheduled Thursday to decide control of the church.

A sharp alignment of ultra-conservatives as against the more tolerant "constitutional conservatives" led by Dr. Charles R. Erdman, Princeton University professor and Princeton, N. J. pastor, had developed on the eve of the contest on the floor of the general assembly to elect a moderator of the church. The battle is over principles and strict adherence to the laws of the church.

Attempts by leaders of the militant fundamentalists, including Dr. Clarence F. McCartney, retiring moderator, with the support of the faction headed by W. J. Bryan, Florida lay commissioner, to induce Dr. Erdman, the leading candidate, to retire from the field in favor of Dr. William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State university were checkmated by Dr. Erdman, who sent word to the fundamentalists that the "fight was over principles not personalities."

Indications were today that the militants would combine back of Dr. Thompson, a former Presbyterian pastor, although backers of other candidates seeking the support of the Bryan-McCartney faction still were hoping that last minute developments would result in the election of their candidates.

Among those still considered were Dr. Harry H. Rogers, Kansas City, Mo. and Dr. Lapsley A. McAfee, Berkeley, California.

The modernists of the church are not expected to be heard from until the general assembly takes up consideration of the overture of the Chester, Pa., Presbytery calling for the excommunicating of the New York Presbytery on charges of "long continued disloyalty to doctrinal standards," and "persistent disobedience to church mandates."

The Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick case in the First Presbyterian church, New York City, is involved. Election of a new New York Presbytery, which would be controlled by conservatives, is asked.

The New York leaders of the church will demand that the Presbytery be exonerated of charges, their reply to the Chester overture asserting that under the laws of the church the Presbytery has sole power to determine the qualifications of candidates for the ministry.

Pre-assembly evangelistic and missionary conferences will be continued here today and tonight.

The general assembly will get under way Thursday morning with devotional services, the sermon of the retiring moderator and the communion service. Election of moderator is scheduled Thursday afternoon.

CRISIS RAPIDLY NEARING BETWEEN FRENCH AND RIFFS

Tribesmen Massing For Decisive
Battle With French
Troops Now

Paris, May 20.—Dispatches from Fez today indicated the situation in French Morocco was rapidly approaching a crisis with Rifian tribesmen massing for a decisive battle with augmented forces of French soldiers.

Abd-El-Krim, Riff leader and sometimes known as the "Robin Hood of the desert," has ordered conscription of his troops and a general mobilization of the entire Riff strength, the dispatch stated.

The French were reported to be receiving heavy reinforcements and to be concentrating aeroplanes in an effort to reassure native tribes which are of doubtful loyalty and which the French feared might join Abd-El-Krim.

NAME OF MINISTER RECOMMENDED FOR O. S. & S. O. HOME JOB

Recommendation that the Rev. J. Norman King, teacher at Bluffton College, be appointed superintendent of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Orphan's Home here to succeed Sylvius Garver, has been received by Governor Donahey from General S. B. Stanberry, Cincinnati.

Although the recommendation was made to Governor Donahey, formal appointment of a superintendent is made by the board of trustees of the institution. The Rev. Mr. King is in Columbus attending the Presbyterian General Assembly. He was a chaplain with the seventh eighth Division during the World War and was awarded the distinguished service cross for gallant conduct. He is professor of social science at Bluffton.

Most a dozen applications are now before the board of trustees of the institution, although names of applicants have not been given out. Rumor that Col. J. P. Elton, former superintendent on two different occasions, would again be named head of the institution, has not been supported. Mrs. Elton, who was chief matron here during the regime of her husband, is now in charge of the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware.

The board is expected to take action on an appointment at the next meeting, early in June. The term of the present heads of the institution expires July 1, by agreement with the board of trustees.

BETTER MAILING IS URGED BY OFFICIALS TO SAVE GREAT LOSS

The week of June 1 to 7 has been designated by the Xenia Postoffice as "Better Mailing Week," in accordance with instructions received from the postal department at Washington, D. C., when a nation-wide campaign will be undertaken to reduce the loss occasioned by carelessness in addressing mail matter.

Postmaster C. S. Frazer asks that local organizations, business men, civic bodies, clubs and other concerns which are large users of mail, co-operate with the postal department in the campaign by having the subject discussed at meetings. Greater care in mailing is urged.

According to Postmaster Frazer, the dead letter offices of the nation claimed 21,000,000 letters and 803,000 parcels last year. A total of 100,000 letters were mailed in perfectly blank envelopes and $55,000 in cash is removed annually from misdirected envelopes.

It cost the postal department $1,740,000 last year to look up addresses. This vast sum could be saved and the dead letter office abolished if each piece of mail carried a return address and if each parcel was wrapped in a stout piece of paper and tied with strong cord, the bulletin received by Postmaster Frazer stated.

The dead letter office is the cemetery of valuable mail entombed in misdirected envelopes, and 20,000,000 letters go there yearly, it is pointed out by Postmaster Frazer.

"Every man knows his own address if not that of his correspondent," declared Postmaster Frazer.

The subject chosen for the afternoon's study was "China's Real Revolution", and Miss Fuelling gave an interesting talk upon various phases of missionary work in China and the mission they were trying to fulfill. There is need for more missionaries for the foreign field and this point should be stressed more on the minds of the church goers, she said.

But this has now been entirely overcome by putting it up in tasteless capsules under the name of Red Mill Hairless Oil. COVERLTS WOVEN YEARS AGO NOW STIR FOLKS

Back in the days of 1809 when the automobiles of the good folk of Xenia snorted and shook their manes and one could park one's gallant steed without a tail light, on a little side street there was a little shop in which worked a little old man from morning 'til evening weaving rare pieces of cloth into beautiful designs that have suddenly come into the limelight.

In the dingy little shop in one corner by the window stood an old loom and around it were scraps of cloth, bits of bright colored threads and unfinished handiwork. At the loom sat the weaver who worked with nimble fingers with the thread that formed some of the loveliest coverlets ever woven. Sold for probably a pittance, the coverlets went their way into the world and passed from hand to hand and generation to generation until now they are prized as heirlooms. Probably other pieces of cloth have been more priceless, there are others older but to Xenians who lay claim to D. Cosley, weaver, the little coverlets hold a treasure of interest.

Little did the weaver dream that in the year 1925 would specimens of his handiwork claim the attention they are now receiving, but the little weaver was not a weaver of dreams!

The latest addition to the collection of coverlets made by D. Cosley, is owned by Mrs. Will Bootes of the Hook Road, who claims that her coverlet beats the record so far. Woven in the year 1847 it is still well preserved and the cloth as good as the day it was finished. Mrs. Charles Devoe stands second in the contest with a coverlet woven in the year 1849. A Cincinnati resident stands third with a coverlet woven in 1852.

ECHOES OF GAZETTE AND REPUBLICAN COOK SCHOOL

The excellent results of the Gazette-Republican Cooking School conducted a few weeks ago at the McKinley School Auditorium by Mrs. Mary Brown-Lewers, internationally known cooking expert, are being noted by Phillip Diehl, local meat dealer.

Mr. Diehl says that women who formerly depended entirely upon the dealer for the selection of meats now come into the shop with a definite knowledge of just what cut or section of meat they want and ask for it by name.

For many months he has had a chart illustrating the various cuts of meat hanging in his shop. He says many women who never before even noticed the chart now study it carefully and discuss the various cuts represented. During the cooking school a representative of the Pocke Meat Company of Dayton, came to this city and gave a highly instructive meat cutting demonstration and the helpful results are being made evident to the local meat dealers by the intelligent buying of the women attending the school.

Not only has the cooking school had this effect noticeable in the meat business but other dealers whose products were discussed at the school find a like situation.

ASPHALT STREETS BEING REPAIRED

Repair work on part of East Main Street is practically completed. It was announced Wednesday by City Manager S. O. Hale, Contract for the work of repairing various asphalt streets in the city was given the Republic Asphalt Company, Dayton since the Dayton concern has an asphalt plant at Wilmington and is the only company located near Xenia that has such facilities.

The firm which originally constructed the streets gave bond to keep them in repair for but five years and as this contract is ended, the Dayton firm was engaged for the work.

It is planned to next repair East Second Street and fill up holes that have placed this portion of the street in bad condition.

DEMOCRACY OR REPUBLIC?

WITH increasing frequency the American government is described as a "democracy" by speakers and writers—so often that many who would by a moment's thought be convinced that the term thus applied is a misnomer, fall into the habit of using this phrase as descriptive of our republic. References to the speeches and writings of great men of the nation up to a few years since, will disclose that this erroneous characterization of our republic was rarely used. Today it is so common that consideration of the distinction between a democracy and a representative republic is a duty of citizenship.

The dictionary definition of democracy as politically applied, is "government directly by the people collectively, a government so constructed." The definition of republic is quite different. Webster says it means "a state in which the sovereign power resides in a certain body of the people, and is exercised by representatives responsible to them. It now often specially implies a free popular government in which there are no classes having exclusive political privileges." The decision was definitely made by the founders of this government between the form of government known as a democracy and that described as a representative republic. Hamilton and others of the architects of our federal Constitution are denounced by radicals today because they inveighed against the form of government known as a democracy, and we have come to use the word so loosely that the impression is given that Hamilton and Washington were attacking popular government. Republicanism means the rule of the people through chosen representatives. Democracy means direct rule by the people, without the choice of representatives restrained by checks and balance of power. One means government by deliberation and under reasonable restraint; the other means government by impulse and passion. The people rule in a Republic as truly as in a Democracy but in the one case they rule intelligently and deliberately, in the other with the danger of irretrievable error through momentary mass impulse.

Thomas Paine said:—"A republic, properly understood, is a sovereignty of justice in contradiction to a sovereignty of will." Thus the great pamphleteer of the American revolution drew clearly the distinction between a republic, "properly understood" and an autocracy or democracy. It is easy to understand how this confusion of terms has come about. The Democratic party has often been referred to by some of its leaders as "the democracy"—a misnomer. In view of the effort that is constantly being made to undermine those provisions and guarantees of our federal Constitution which make our government a representative republic, and to substitute fundamental changes which would make us politically a democracy, this distinction is important. Our form of government has been a great success; it has combined liberty with security—neither is of value without the other. It is not a democracy and will not be until our form of government is so changed that one hundred and ten million Americans are asked to act directly upon public measures, without constitutional restraint upon the rapidity of the action of its interference with our present Constitution's guarantee of the citizen's fundamental rights of person and property.

Remember—ours is not a democracy; it is a republic and if you would help to perpetuate our Constitution and form of government as it now stands, you will refer to our country as a republic and not a democracy.

THE SHOT OUT OF TROUBLE

All even with but one to play, 'tis then that golf is tense.
 'Tis then the yawning traps are deep and then the woods are dense;
 'Tis then the drive must hold the line, the iron find the green
 And that's what Currie knew that day he fought it out with Dean.

Now Currie cursed the rough which lined the fairways, and he cursed
 The traps which bring disaster, but the ditch he dreaded worst.
 The ditch which guarded the eighteenth green, for many a stroke it cost
 And Currie prayed to get across or else the game was lost.

But Currie's second found the ditch and Dean was short in two,
 And Currie walked about his luck and cursed that ditch anew;
 Then something whispered low to him: "Don't let your courage fall."

You haven't lost till Dean has won! Walk in and play the ball!
 Then ankle deep in mud and slime he made his final stand.
 A blackened ball rose high in air beside the flag to land;
 Disaster had been overcome, 'tis thus are memories made.

And Currie calls that shot today the best he ever played.

The thing called trouble rightly met gives back life's sweetest thrill.
 The yawning traps and bunkers line the course and always will.
 But perfect drives and easy shots are not to be compared
 With winning out against the odds, when trouble has you snared.

LEMONS BLEACH THE SKIN WHITE

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.
 Massage this is sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

And growing fruit on bush and tree,
 And coming crops, on fertile ground,
 That show a harvest good there'll be.
 We see the brightly, shining sun,
 On which the harvest does depend,
 For fruits and flowers it much has done,
 And is a great and helpful friend.

So many children dear we see
 Who for "Life's Harvest" should prepare
 And, like the fruits upon the tree,
 Should have a true friend's faithful care.

To be the kind of folks we should
 We cannot make, too soon, a start
 'Tis greatest wisdom to be good,
 And let no bad get in our heart.

Like fruits and flowers, we help do need
 That we may, daily, better grow.
 And we can have true help, indeed,
 The very best that any know.

In love our Heavenly Father gave
 The "Son of Righteousness" for all
 From sin's dark cloud He would all save

And down in shame ne'er let us fall.
 So many good things God does give
 To make all happy here, below,
 And Christians, who for Him do live,
 His love to boys and girls do show.
 The "Son of Righteousness" did say
 To let the children come to Him,
 His love for them is the same today,
 And never can grow less or dim.
 He took them in His loving arms,
 And sweetly He did bless them there.
 To keep them safe from all that harms.

His followers do their blessings share.
 In health of body, soul and mind
 They work to have the children grow.
 And in "Life's Harvest" time they'll find
 God's richest blessings they shall know.

MAYTIME

By I. R. McKee
 Our dear Maytime, again, is here,
 That does so much of good for tell,
 It brings to us good hope and cheer,
 And gratitude our hearts does swell.

We see bright flowers blooming 'round,

Boils!

S.S.S. will rid you of boils, pimples, blackheads and skin eruptions!

DON'T CLOSE your eyes to the warning which Nature gives when angry, painful boils appear on your neck, face or other parts of your body. Boils, pimples and so-called skin disorders are the result of an impoverished condition of the blood and are not to be trifled with.

It is nothing more than folly to expect to get absolute relief from the use of local treatments, such as ointments, salves, etc. Such remedies may afford temporary relief but you want more than relief; you want a remedy which will rid you forever of the torturing disorder. And the one remedy which has no equal is S.S.S.

S.S.S. stops boils and keeps them from coming. S.S.S. builds blood-power! That is what makes fighting blood. Fighting blood destroys impurities. It fights boils! It fights skin eruptions—pimples, blackheads, eczema! It always wins! S.S.S. has been known since 1826 as one of the greatest blood builders, blood cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. There are no unproven theories about S.S.S., the scientific results of each of its purely vegetable medicinal ingredients are admitted by authorities. Begin taking S.S.S. today and clear your skin of those blood disorders!

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

PINCHES

A man always acts his biggest and truest in pinches.

I have known many people who were irritable and almost bad companions during the ordinary affairs of the day but when faced by something big—something that called for daring and correct decisive action, remained calm and full of courage.

I recall a story of the late Joseph Pulitzer which one of his secretaries related in a book. Mr. Pulitzer was blind during the last years of his life.

One day while two of his secretaries and himself were walking on a dangerous hillside in France, two cars came along at great speed and all three lives of the workers were in danger. Immediately Mr. Pulitzer was pushed to the side of the cliff and danger was averted.

"I expected an explosion from J. P.," says his secretary. "Nothing of the kind! He acted then, as I always saw him act when there was any actual danger or real trouble of any kind, with perfect calmness and self-possession."

But this action on the part of Mr. Pulitzer was the result of long years of work and privation and from learning to act and then pass on.

I know of no other quality so important as that of learning to make prompt and honest decisions quickly.

Of course this means many mistakes, but the more mistakes one makes early in life, the more cautious one becomes and this, with the added experience that naturally follows, gives one an acquired poise and courage.

My trust and admiration goes to him who knows how to handle himself in a pinch.

Indecision always cripples and encourages inefficiency.

We must not wait upon other people. None of us is infallible. We accumulate strength and pile up power by acting and taking the consequences.

You are as big as you act in a pinch!

WILL CARRY BRYAN FARM ACCEPTANCE TO SUPREME COURT

A order directing Attorney General C. C. Crane to carry to the Ohio Supreme Court to obtain a ruling testing the validity of the state's acceptance of the John Bryan farm, Yellow Springs, was made Wednesday by Governor Vic Donahey.

Passing the act over the Governor's veto, a law was enacted two years ago by the state legislature accepting the farm.

The grant of John Bryan was accepted by the state on the condition that public religious worship would be prohibited on the land.

The state board of control and the Ohio department station which had charge of the administration of the land, were made defendants in a suit recently, seeking to prevent the board from carrying out the provisions of the law. The law was constitutional, it was held by the court.

The attorney general was directed by Governor Donahey Wednesday to bring the additional suit to further test the case.

"I am not satisfied," declared Governor Donahey, "with letting the case rest after this decision. The constitutionality of the act has not been thoroughly enough tested."

AMERICAN WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMP LOSES TO BRITISH CHAMP

Troon, Scotland, May 20—Larks sang their merry lay in the tree tops along the fairways today but their song found no response in the gallant little heart of Miss Glenna Collett, former American women's golf champion. Fighting gamely to the last, Miss Collett went down to defeat at the capable hands of Miss Joyce Wethered, perennial British champion, in the third round of the women's open championship.

The score was 4 up and 3 to play, the American conceding defeat on the fifteenth green, after a ten foot putt had rolled off the line.

A gallery of 3,000 spectators followed the two stars. Miss Collett's score on the first nine was two over par.

Miss Collett continued to err on the way back. She shot into the bunkers on both the tenth and eleventh holes, Miss Wethered winning the tenth with a birdie four and the eleventh with a birdie three.

The American champion managed to halve the twelfth and thirteenth holes by turning in par fours. She dropped the fourteenth hole to Miss Wethered, however, when she had to take three putts.

Kauffman's pitching and the hitting of Griffith and Friberg stopped the Giants winning streak of eight straight the Cubs stepping into an 8 to 2 verdict.

Harper's homer off Watson with the bases filled gave the Phillies an 8 to 4 decision over the Cardinals.

Walter Johnson, pinch hitting for Orden, socked a homer off Shaute with one on in the ninth and the Senators beat the Indians, 4 to 3.

Except for Miller's homer with two on in the ninth, Lyons had the Athletics absolutely in the hip pocket and the White Sox won, 4 to 3.

The Browns hit Quinn with enthusiasm and won from the Red Sox, 8 to 2. Bush finally staking himself to a victory.

Dazzy Vance got 1,000 as the league's most valuable chattel and the Dodgers got the ball game when they fell on Morrison for five runs in the second, the Pirates finishing second, 9 to 5.

PLANS MATURING FOR ANNUAL OBSERVANCE OF DECORATION DAY

Final arrangements for the observance of Memorial Day in Xenia, were laid at the joint meeting of patriotic organizations of the city in the G. A. R. Hall, Court House, Tuesday evening.

The invitation of the First United Presbyterian Church, to hold the joint memorial service the Sunday preceding Memorial Day, May 24, in the church, was accepted. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, and the Rev. J. P. Lytle will preach the sermon.

Patriotic and fraternal organizations are urged to take part in the parade, the chief feature of Memorial Day. The line will form at 2 o'clock and march to Woodland Cemetery, where the Rev. F. W. Stanton, pastor of the First M. E. Church, will deliver the address. The Home Band and battalion will participate in the parade, it was announced at the meeting.

H. H. Conklin, C. L. Darlington and Mrs. George Kaiser will form the reception committee at the cemetery ceremonies. Music will be furnished by a male quartet. Anyone who has a machine to take part in the parade is asked to call L. S. Barnes.

Troops One and Two, Boy Scouts will assist in the observance, also, it was announced Wednesday by Scoutmaster R. H. Kingsbury.

Few members of the troops will participate at Woodland Cemetery at 9 o'clock Friday morning, May 29, to make plans to gather flowers over the city during the day. Flowers must be left at the G. A. R. Hall in the Court House or the American Legion Headquarters not later than 2 o'clock that day, to be made up into bouquets. The boy scouts will place the flowers on the graves at 5:30 o'clock, that evening.

Dr. C. P. Prouditt, pastor of the Second U. P. Church will preach a sermon at the memorial service to be held at the American Legion rooms, in the Kingsbury building, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The public is invited to the services.

Business men are urged to display the American flag at their business houses, Memorial Day. A plan is being furthered to have flags at all homes in the city, on Memorial Day, as all other patriotic days.

Thomas Gilroy and Mrs. Frank Hustmyer are members of the American Legion committee, that reported at the meeting that plans had been completed for Memorial Day services at the Catholic Cemetery. Services there will be held about 9 o'clock the morning of Memorial Day.

Mrs. Virginia Ellsberry, Xenia, will deliver the Gettysburg Address at Beaver Cemetery, during the observance there.

Representatives of the G. A. R., W. R. C. S. of V., American Legion, Legion Auxiliary and other organizations attended the meeting Tuesday evening.

BOTH SIDES MARK TIME IN DISPUTE OVER "BLUE LAWS"

All was quiet along the Potomac in the Sunday "blue law" controversy Wednesday.

Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Marshall admitted receiving a second demand in the form of a letter from Attorney F. L. Johnson on behalf of his unknown clients that "blue laws" be enforced in Xenia, but again declined to make a statement of his position on the question.

The prosecutor was occupied with other duties Wednesday he said and did not indicate whether he would give Johnson an answer to his second letter.

Attorney Johnson could not say Wednesday what further action would be taken in the matter should the prosecutor fail to answer his second letter satisfactorily declaring he would have to confer with his clients. Meanwhile both sides are marking time.

The second letter was sent to Prosecutor Marshall in what is believed to be an attempt to force him to show his hand and explain his position that Johnson's clients may act accordingly. The prosecutor thus far has maintained silence.

KIWANIANS HEAR ADDRESS BY DR. H. A. HOFFMAN AT MEET

Dr. H. A. Hoffman, this city, former chief bacteriologist at Antioch College, Yellow Springs and now connected with the personnel department of the school, addressed the Xenia Kiwanis Club, Tuesday evening at the Goody Shoppe.

Dr. Hoffman discussed the production of good milk and stressed the importance of clean modern dairies and the absolute sanitation of dairy products. He explained the state's method of testing cows for tuberculosis on the area plan in one township at a time. It is understood that the test will be made in Xenia township soon.

Dr. Hoffman's talk was augmented by lantern slides. He was assisted by Mr. Fitch, a college student.

A directors' meeting was held after the talk, which followed the luncheon. Plans were perfected for the district Kiwanis meeting in Xenia May 27, when hundreds of Kiwanians from this section of the state will come here.

The chief entertaining feature will be the appearance of Jules Brazil, of Canada, internationally known comedian. Other entertainment will be arranged as an addition to the business sessions of the all-day conference.

James D. Adair, is chairman of the decorating committee for the convention, and he will request Xenia merchants to display their curb flags the afternoon of the district meeting.

Howard Smith, Dayton, lieutenant governor of this Kiwanis District, will be honor guest at the meeting.

PRINCE CASE GIVEN JURY AFTER TRIAL IN PROBATE COURT

The case of H. E. Prince, charged with permitting Albert Smith to record wagers on race horses in a business room he occupies, went to the jury in Probate Court Wednesday afternoon at 2:10 o'clock.

The state rested its case late Wednesday morning and the defense took but little time to present its case. Prosecutor J. C. Marshall and City Solicitor J. A. Finney presented arguments for the state and Attorney C. L. Darlington for the defendant.

The state examined several witnesses in the morning session and County Detective F. E. Gary and J. Edward Smith, alleged detective. They substantiated charges against Prince as contained in the affidavit.

The jury consisting of six women and six men was only chosen after a special venire of twelve names were drawn at the start of the trial.

Following is the jury: Branson Shank, Minnie Faulkner, Lampton Smith, William Kyne, Nannie Ogles, Ray Garringer, Anna B. Davis, Axie Gushwa, A. R. Weaver, Frank Keyes, Mrs. J. H. Benbow, and Mrs. J. H. Canaday.

The special venire of twelve picked by Judge S. C. Wright was as follows: Henry Fetz, Frank Keyes, Ralph James, H. A. Higgins, Thelma G. White, Mrs. J. H. Benbow, Mrs. J. H. Canaday, Elmer Waddle, Mrs. Elizabeth Hanley, Clara O'Brien, Madge Cooley, and E. H. Heathman.

A motion made of Attorney C. L. Darlington, counsel for Prince, that the special venire be drawn from the jury wheel in Common Pleas Court, that a more fair representation from Greene County could be had, was overruled by Judge Wright.

Attorneys for both sides made use of but two of their allotted four peremptory challenges.

DRILL FOR OIL

Chillicothe, May 20—A force of men working day and night shifts have started drilling for oil on the Amos Brown farm, near Hallsville, Ross county. The project is being financed by eastern capital. It is believed by geologists that this community is rich in oil and gas deposits.

LOCAL OFFICIALS HELD RESPONSIBLE

Columbus, O., May 20—Attorney General Crabbe today advised County Prosecutors throughout the state that it is up to the local officials to enforce the Ohio state law prohibiting circulation of obscene magazines and papers.

After citing the law, the attorney general requested each of the officials to exercise diligence in removing such periodicals from newsstands. Crabbe's action was brought about by a letter from Florence D. Richards, president of the Ohio W. C. T. U., naming numerous magazines which she declared were "obscene and unfit reading."

MANY HAVE GOITRE

Bucyrus, May 20—Of the girl pupils in the rural schools of Crawford County, outside of Bucyrus and Galion, 56 per cent are affected with goitre, according to a survey made by Dr. G. T. Wasson, county health commissioner, the disease ranging from incipient thyroid trouble to the malignant stage. The report shows that 906 of the 1603 girls and young women pupils who were examined were affected with goitre.

MODISH MITZI—Dots Win With Universal Suffrage

By JAY V. JAY

One polka dot can't make a summer or a fashion or anything else very much, but hundreds of them together make the smartest styles of the season. This new dress of Mitzi's is a white crepe de chine with dots of blue and orange and an orange silk for trimming.

After careful consideration Mitzi thinks she will invest in dots a little more heavily and the best value she can find is this dotted suit of crepe with a lining and dress of the speckled silk. The more dots there are to the square inch the better value.

You'll notice that her hat is trimmed with silk to match her dress. Cozier notices it also, but not so as Mitzi notices his polka dots. They are both confessing to secret partiality for polka various colors and sizes—

The consequences are that Mitzi goes with the Goofier to give him courage and moral support. He has been admiring this shirt—which is new and smart and is being worn, but which seemed to the Goofier to be perhaps not quite conservative. After seeing Mitzi he realizes that it is.

"CAP" STUBBS—Well—One Of 'Em's Th' Champ!!

NEW YORK ATHLETIC COMMISSION WILL HAIL NEW LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION SOON

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, May 20—With the utmost gravity and aplomb, the New York State Athletic Commission is about to hail a new lightweight champion of the world from among the four remaining survivors of an elimination tournament. He will be named to replace Benny Leonard, the well known and dutiful son, and it will be his driving home a needle in place of a nail.

There are four men left in the running and none of them assay more than fifty per cent. They are named in the order of their ability, Jimmy Goodrich, of Buffalo; Benny Valgar, of New York and the foreign entries, Loayza, of Chile and Olanio of Cuba.

Within a month, one of them will be duly escorted to the throne upon which Gans, Nelson, McLaughlin, Lavigne and other immortals sat, and invited to make himself at home.

No peasant in the palace could occupy a more incongruous role. Somehow, the lightweight division never has had an unrepresentative champion but it cannot very well escape the stigma now. He will not deserve to be coupled in the same company with Gans, Nelson, and the others.

Goodrich is perhaps the best of the lot and at one time, he looked the part of a fighter. But during recent months, he has been in a steady slump and only through the grace of circumstances has he reached the semi-final round of the tournament. The spectators almost rioted when his first round match with Eddie Kid Wagner, of Philadelphia was called a draw at the end of ten rounds. But they fairly frothed at the mouth when Goodrich was named as the winner after two extra rounds.

Both decisions are alleged to have been the "falsito." Many likewise did not agree with the verdict that gave Goodrich the decision over Clyde Jeakle and two nights ago, the Buffalo entry was awarded the fight when hit low by Sammy Mandell. The later was a heavy winner on points when the foul occurred.

So much for Goodrich. He is the man who is generally favored to survive the ultimate issue, and Valgar, a light-hitting, holding, safety first young man, is next in line.
The foreigners, Loayza and Olanio, can be dismissed without preamble. They are in the tourney only to give it tone and refinement, or something. Mandell, of course, was the best man in the lists. He is wonderfully fast and his gameness is above suspicion. He is an interesting boxer to watch and altogether is the only lightweight in view at the present, who could be acceptable as a champion. The winner of the tourney will receive scant consideration until he takes on Mandell in a post series match.

DAYTON DEFEATS ANTIOCH COLLEGE AT YELLOW SPRINGS

The University of Dayton baseball bunched hits and runs in the fourth and sixth innings enabling it to defeat the Antioch College nine for the second time this season at Yellow Springs Tuesday afternoon by a score of 10 to 2.

Antioch sluggers gathered ten hits off the offerings of Canfield, Dayton pitcher, but the latter enjoyed success in keeping them well scattered.

Dawson started the game on the hill for Antioch but was sent to the showers in the fourth after a deluge of hits was productive of four runs. Wood, his successor, held the visitors scoreless the next inning but was touched for five tallies in the sixth.

Alexander played a whirlwind game for Antioch at second base besides cracking out a single, double and triple.

Dawson and Wood displayed a tendency toward wildness on the mound, Dawson granting seven passes and Wood four. Dawson was probably the most effective of the trio of pitchers and struck out eight Daytonians. Score by innings:

Dayton 0 0 4 0 5 0 0 1-10
Antioch 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 0-2

Sporttime Stories

BROADCAST BY STATION
WONES

After ten lengthy years Connie Mack, now beyond 60, appears to have performed a "comeback" by getting together a ball club that at this time seems to be almost as great as his peerless combination years ago. Mack is not a cheap magnate and spent plenty of dough for talent in the minor leagues and elsewhere. At present the Athletics are leading the league one full game over the Cleveland Indians and are hitting and fielding good. Sam Gray, pitcher for the Athletics, is going good and is leading the league with seven wins to date while he is yet to be defeated. He pitched fair ball last season winning eight and losing seven contests. He had an earned run average of 3.97 which is not any too good. This season he has turned in some stellar victories. Twice he has shut the New York Yanks out. He has given 17 walks and fanned 25 in the seven games he has pitched and is certain to prove an asset to the Mackmen in their quest for the pennant.

Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, has done little or nothing in defense of his title. In most of the bout his opponents have been setups or second raters. He refused to meet Dave Shade, California welter and was suspended by the New York boxing commission and was just reinstated recently. He has met Shade twice, both times before he fought for the championship. In the first match in 1921 he got the decision over Shade as he injured his hand and Shade lost on a technical kayo. They met in Newark, N. J., some time later and Shade beat Walker plenty bad. The following year he met and defeated Jack Britton for the welterweight crown.

Greb, Pittsburgh Jumping Jack and middleweight champion of the world. His title will not be at stake because of the weight difference. This meeting will be a good test of his ability as Greb has a style that is hard to figure and if Walker fathoms it he will have established his right to be classed as a real champion.

The New York Giants continue to lead in the National League and at present have a five and one-half game lead over Brooklyn. During the past week they won eight straight games and lost but one and this was to Chicago on Tuesday. Brooklyn, in second place, scored a half dozen victories while losing three games. The Reds beat the Braves Tuesday and broke their losing streak and jumped into a tie for fourth place with the Pirates. The Phillies are playing good ball and are in the first division, which seems rather peculiar. They are hitting and fielding in excellent fashion. Fonseca, Hoken, Hawks, Burns, Sand and Harper are all hitting over the .300 mark and this is one reason why they are up there.

audience that filled the auditorium. The next West Ohio M. E. Conference will be held September 1 at Trinity Church, Lima, O. District Superintendent E. O. Crist, announced.

Splendid addresses on various phases of church work featured the three sessions of the conference, which opened at 9:30 o'clock, with a devotional period, in charge of J. W. Patton.

Organization, roll call and minute business took place until 10:30 o'clock, when Professor John Finley Williamson, Dayton director of the famous Westminster Choir, spoke of church music and the importance of this part of the service. He led the congregation in several numbers.

The next address, the last one of the morning session was given by G. B. Parkin, on "Vital Needs of the Minister of Today." He spoke of the growth of the church and the new demands on the pastoral leader, outlining some of the main projects of the denomination.

Dinner was served at 12 o'clock, and the afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock, with devotions lead by C. L. Buehler.

Bishop Henderson's address was followed by a talk on "The Conference Endowment Fund," by E. C. Harter, Dayton. He gave a report of the finances of the district and spurred the churches of the district on to further effort.

"Stewardship" was the subject of C. W. Brashares, Dayton. He stressed the high importance of this service and laid down several rules for the church leaders and laymen to follow.

E. A. Seamands, a missionary to India, who is home on furlough, talked on "World Service," at the evening service. He drew on his experiences in the foreign field to illustrate his points in an interesting manner. He spoke of the scope of the foreign mission work and the large accomplishments that are being made by the church in other fields.

The Rev. C. E. Turley, Dayton, spoke of "Christ and Youth," stressing the importance of the young people in the church, and the consideration with which their activities should be met.

The Rev. Mr. Turley and Mr. Seamands took the place of Bishop Henderson in the evening since he was first scheduled for that program. The evening devotions were led by the Rev. V. F. Brown, of Trinity Church. The Trinity Choir, in charge of Mrs. W. H. McGervey, sang an anthem. Mrs. McGervey led the afternoon singing and sang a solo.

Members of the Ministers' Wives' Association of the District enjoyed a luncheon and program in the primary room of the church at the noon hour. This is always an enjoyable feature of the district gatherings.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER XLVII.
Long smoldering rebellion flamed up in Lilah.

"Mother! You've just got to stop interfering!" Her voice failed her, and tears crept into her eyes.

Mother Pharely stared. This was a new experience, to be shrieked at in such a fashion by her daughter. What did the girl mean!

"I WILL NOT allow him—or us, to be bossed as you let me speak to him about the change in the wedding plans! As it is, you've crammed the change down his throat, and after he had suggested the time that he wanted us to get married!" She was crying now, and each word was uttered fiercely.

"I won't have you arranging our plans as you like. I won't! I WON'T!"

Pain was spread over Mother Pharely's face. She, too, was ready to cry. She had only—she couldn't understand.

"Lilah!" she exclaimed, "I didn't mean—"

"No, you always MEAN well! You're ALWAYS right!" Lilah sat down wearily.

Each word cut deeper into Mother Pharely's heart. She stood gazing helplessly at her daughter. She couldn't understand. "But he said it would be all right," she began.

"Of course, he would," Lilah interrupted. "What else could he do? He had no choice! You've offended him. He gave me the coldest of goodbyes. Oh—"

"She bent her head upon her arm, weeping.

"Lilah, dearest, I didn't mean—"

"She paused, comprehending at last. For a moment she gazed at her daughter, then bent down on her knees at Lilah's side.

"Forgive me dearest. I'm sorry. I realize—"

Lilah raised her tear-stained face. "Never mind, Mamma." She patted her parent on the shoulder. "I'm sorry I spoke to you as I did. I know you didn't."

She arose. "Let's go to bed."

"I'll explain to him, Lilah."

Her daughter turned upon her. "No, No! I don't want you to explain. That would make matters worse. Oh, mamma! Why won't you understand! I just want you to let US arrange our wedding." She paused. "I warn you that if he wants to have the wedding according to our original plans, I'll marry him then, regardless of whether you're here or in Hawaii."

Mrs. Pharely winced. Aggrieved until now, with some realization of having erred, this last remark of her daughter's made her angry.

"You talk as if this was the last chance you were ever going to have to get married. If he is as finicky as all that, then he isn't worth marrying. Are you going to be under his little finger after you're married? Don't be idiotic as well as foolish! He hasn't social position, and not much money. What'll he ever be? The Mailery boy has—"

"Mother! I won't listen to you another second. I didn't think you liked Michael, and now I know it. I wouldn't marry Abe Mallory even if I couldn't marry Michael." She was crying again.

"Mother, you just won't understand!" Her voice became low. "I love him."

She climbed the stairs to her room in anguish. If only this evening hadn't lost her Michael!

A Saving of $36,000,000

According to the most conservative calculation, American motorists pay $36,000,000 a year for chassis lubrication.

And that sum represents but a fraction of the saving that motorists would enjoy if all cars were, like the Cleveland Six, equipped with the

"One-Shot" Lubrication System

(Licensed under Bowens Products Co. patents)

This exclusive, high pressure system does more than eliminate the actual cost of having a garage or service station lubricate vital bearings.

It eliminates the inconvenience of leaving the car to have it done or of doing the job yourself. It reduces service, maintenance, and depreciation costs. And it guarantees a properly functioning, smoothly operating car at all times.

For you simply step on a plunger and every moving part is flushed with clean, live lubricant. Any Cleveland Six dealer will show you.
